

BS 100-41730

DJQ/dao

1.

b6
b7C

GEORGE E. KENNEDY

A review of the "Boston Herald American," a daily newspaper published in Boston, Massachusetts, issue of January 13, 1973, contained an article "Suit is Filed to Recover Manuscript."

The article stated "a suit to recover a manuscript in custody of STANLEY RAY BOND, 27, when he was killed in a bomb blast at Walpole State Prison was filed in Middlesex Superior Court yesterday."

"GEORGE E. KENNEDY of Haven Lane, Natick, charges in the petition that Norfolk County District Attorney GEORGE G. BURKE had failed to return the manuscript he left in BOND'S possession. As a result, he said, he is unable to finish it."

On January 18, 1973, Lieutenant Detective WILLIAM MILLER, Massachusetts State Police, Dedham, Massachusetts, advised that he searched BOND'S cell following the explosion on May 24, 1972 which killed BOND and no such manuscript or part of a manuscript was located.